The Art Of Warhammer Firebase Secondly, I was an avid fan of the game itself, along with it's art development. The strongest art design the game had by far was it's character design (races, armor, weapons, etc). I really would liked to have seen MORE of that design development in the book. This is truly a Warhammer collector's item. The Art of Warhammer Online: Lucas Hardi and Michael ...

Great art book for the Warhammer Online game. The sketches, character and environment design were all fantastic. The only thing that threw me was the lack of any sort of text or discussion of the work in the book. I like to get some insight on what went into the work, how it was done...something. It was just a bit strange to see just artwork without any sort of narrative at all. Still, great ...

I'm sorry to say that FIREBASE will be coming to a close. My health has been suffering dramatically and I simply can't produce the magazine, work in my full time job and have time to myself -even rest properly and get over the flu I've had for the past few months. No one suitable has emerged to take the reigns, so I'm afraid that FIREBASE will finish after its third issue.
